State Farm USA Basketball Challenge Officially Sold Out

Full house to greet the USA Basketball Men's National Team as they prepare for international competition

LAS VEGAS (July 25, 2008) – USA Basketball and Las Vegas Events announced today that the State Farm USA Basketball Challenge is officially sold out. The game, scheduled for 5 p.m. (PT) this evening at the Thomas & Mack Center, will feature the USA Basketball Men's National Team taking on the Canadian National Team.

Fans attending tonight's game are urged to leave early to the Thomas & Mack Center or to use public transportation or carpools. Parking attendants and signs at the Thomas & Mack Center will direct fans to the appropriate parking areas.

In addition, it is advised that will-call tickets be picked up no later than one hour prior to the game. Doors to the arena will open at 3:30 p.m. (PT).

The game will be televised live on ESPN beginning at 5 p.m. (PT). For additional information, please go to www.VegasSummerHoops.com or www.usabasketball.com.
